The effectiveness of the "letterhead campaign" for votes for Washing'on was shown today when it was announced that more than 150 replies, asking what the writers could do to help the people of the District of Columbia to become citizens, have been received by Dr. George T. Sharp, secretary and treasurer of the Eas: ern Viavi Company, with offices in the Colorado Building.

Dr. Sharp said he had told most of the volunteers to get after their county papers and to request their tax appeals since February 3 to apcustomers and friends to bring pressure on representatives in Washing-

Raining, So Doughboy Carried Umbrella as He Went Over the Top

WEBSTER, Mass., March 4 .--Folks here are waiting to greet Private Stanley Karabash, the doughboy who "went over the top" carrying an umbrella.

Karabash, in a letter to his home from a base hospital, says the reason he carried the umbrella was to protect his "tin hat" from rain. He didn't want the head piece to get rusty, he said.

The War taught me different

"Little did I know about Adams Black Jack the day I sailed for France. Like many another Major I thought it merely a habit. The war taught me different. For thirst Adams Black Jack is incomparable. Good for the throat too. It helped me over many a hard day in the trenches of war and now I'm sure it's going to help me over many a hard day in the trenches of business. So today-the first time back at the old desk in 14 months -I shall begin to use a package of Adams Black Jack a day."
